Note from CSE Student Representatives

Update on CSE Student Lab Space

The CSE Student Representatives would like to thank everyone who participated in the survey on CSE student lab space. The responses and comments were used to compose a report to the department. The report can be accessed here. The next step includes assembling a group to speak with the department chair about the student body's opinions on lab space and ways to move forward. If you would like to be involved in this, please contact your student representatives. Contact information can be found here. Thank you for all of your input!
