SEPTEMBER 30TH, 2016

"Don't let anyone rob you of your imagination, your creativity, or your curiosity. It's your place in the world; it's your life. Go on and do all you can with it, and make it the life you want to live."

– Mae C. Jemison, first African-American woman astronaut

Exciting Opportunities!

MHacks 8

When : October 7th - 9th

Where : Detroit Masonic Temple

Details : MHacks is a 36-hour hackathon organized by students at the University of Michigan. Every semester over 2000 students from all over the world gather to work in teams to build or code projects, or “hacks”, that they are excited about. Technology, hardware, food, workshops, and anything else you need to make your project happen is provided throughout the course of the hackathon. It is a great opportunity to work with amazing technologies, people, and gain hands-on experience with putting your programming skills to work!

For more information and direction on how to apply, visit their website or Facebook page.

If you decide you are interested in going, make sure to check out Spartan Hacker’s Facebook event where they are coordinating rides to get to Detroit!
