WIC Bits

"Hard work beats talent when talent doesn't work hard."

–Tim Notke

Self Defense Workshop

When : Tuesday, April 9th @ 6:00 PM

Where : 1230 Engineering

Details : This self defense workshop, brought to us by MSU's Recreational Sports and Fitness Services, provides common sense and practical information regarding assault prevention. Learn verbal, non-verbal, psychological, and physical techniques for defending potentially violent encounters. The program is interactive and fun!

Please RSVP! -> Facebook Event

Dr. Dillon's Retirement Dinner

The CSE department is throwing a retirement dinner for our advisor, Dr. Dillion, and WIC members are invited to come. You must RSVP to this invitation by April 9th to attend.

ITA All Female Coding Challenge

The Illinois Technology Association is kicking off a Spring Tech Challenge from April 10-16, 2019. This virtual challenge is open to any U.S. based students who identify as female in higher education, and the top spot receives $1,000!

Click here to register.

CSE 102 TAs Needed

Dr. Anderson is looking for ULAs to for CSE 102 for both Summer 2019 and Fall 2019 sessions. If you know Python and are interested in this opportunity contact Dr. Anderson at ande1989@cse.msu.edu.

MSU CSE Organizations

Spartan Hackers: Sony - Game Design Info Session

When : Tuesday, April 9th @ 7 PM

Where : CAS 145

Details : Come visit with Sony recruiters to learn about full time and internship opportunities in their Los Angeles studio!

ACM : TBD

Stay up to date with ACM through their Facebook page!

< Michigan State University Women in Computing />